

COSGROVE LAW, LLC

FIGHTING FOR PEOPLE LIKE YOU

Cosgrove Law, LLC is a national law firm providing litigation services and commodities consulting services.

We have extensive experience representing precious metals retailers and precious metals brokers in a variety of situations including regulatory matters and customer complaints.

We also have experience providing those same companies with compliance consulting services ranging from basic consulting such as reviewing marketing materials to comprehensive consulting, including establishing a compliance program and a Policies and Procedures manual. Our attorneys and staff also have experience auditing sales employees in the precious metals industry as well as researching applicable state and federal laws which are essential to a properly run business.

The choice of an attorney is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

Proud Member of
The National Trade Association for the Rare Coin / Precious Metals / Tangible Assets Industry: the Industry Council for Tangible Assets (ICTA).

Our Attorneys have extensively researched how State securities statues may affect your precious metals business. We offer a comprehensive 50-State Survey which provides an overview for each State as well as a comprehensive display for each State. Please contact us for more details.
